1. What are they?

AsciiDoctorJ Panels are a way of creating a panel that is clickable. Now you can create a set of panels that links to various contents, an alternative way of building links.

2. How to use?

AsciiDoctorJ Panels are built using a block processor. SO you will need to create blocks to visualize them. For the most part, the body of the panel is built using a Kotlin DSL.

2.1. First Example

The first type of panels is just panels with a list of panel objects. See example below

```
1 panels {
2     panel{
3         link = "http://www.google.com"
4         label = "Google Search"
5     }
6 }
```

Given the above, we will build panels for Google, Apple, Microsoft, Amazon, Netflix

```
1 [panels,"buttons",width="80%"]
2 ----
3 panels {
4   panel {
5     link = "https://www.google.com"
6     label = "Google"
7   }
8   panel {
9     link = "https://www.apple.com"
10    label = "Apple"
11  }
12  panel {
13    link = "https://www.microsoft.com"
14    label = "Microsoft"
15  }
16  panel {
17    link = "https://www.amazon.com"
18    label = "Amazon"
19  }
20  panel {
21    link = "https://www.netflix.com"
22    label = "Netflix"
23  }
24 }
25 ----
```

Table 1. Panel Links

	Label	Link
	This Is Another Google	This Is Another Google
	Apple	Apple
	Microsoft	Microsoft
	Amazon	Amazon
	Netflix	Netflix

The syntax is pretty small to make a panel of buttons.

3. Round Buttons

Similar to the buttons, we have a round object we can use.

```
[panels,buttons2]
----
panels{ theme { colorMap{ color("#ff6385")
      color("#36a3eb")
      color("#9966ff")
      color("#ffcf56") color("#4bc0c0")
      color("#FDCBF1")
    }
  }
  round {
    link = "https://www.google.com"
    label = "Google"
  round {
    link = "https://www.apple.com"
    label = "Apple"
  }
  round {
    link = "https://www.microsoft.com"
    label = "Microsoft"
  round {
    link = "https://www.amazon.com"
    label = "Amazon"
  round {
    link = "https://www.netflix.com"
    label = "Netflix"
}
